The New Orleans (grilled boneless chicken breast sandwich)
- RSVP: Please RSVP with meal selection to Jim Bogner at James.Bogner@dhs.gov or by calling 457-1512 no later than COB Monday, July 14th.

Business Meeting: 1) Omaha DIDA (Downtown Improvement District Association) (www.omahadowntown.org) has approached the Omaha ASIS chapter through Bob Achenbach, about becoming involved in security planning/issues and forming a neighborhood watch program in collaboration with the police department in the downtown area (the approximate area bounded by the river to 17th streets, and Leavenworth to Webster streets. If you have a security presence in this area (for example, a business like first National Bank, or a guard service contracted for the area) and wish to learn more and/or form a working committee for this project, please attend this topic discussion. ODIDA Executive Director Shelley Kiel will inform the membership about this project, and seek the chapter's assistance in forming this security partnership.

2) Scholarship Awards / Law Enforcement Appreciation (LEA) Awards Luncheon update: We will discuss our scholarship and a proposal to award them during the LEA Appreciation luncheon, as well as make a donation from the proceeds of the luncheon to the Douglas County Law Enforcement Officers Memorial, which will be built on the sheriff's department grounds, 156th & Maple in early 2009.

Announcements:

- Free ASIS Atlanta Seminar Registration ($790 value) was won by member John Retelsdorf in a second drawing held at the June meeting, after the May drawing winners were not able to use the registration. All current paid chapter members were eligible for the drawing.
- New Members: Welcome new members Michael Jones and Gene Lamprecht, who were awarded their new member certificates at the June meeting.
- Community Service Project: A BIG thank you and a job well-done to members David Gates, Brian Michalski, Rod Rogers, Ann Langemeier, and Donnie Thorson for the Security/Safety Assessment that they performed for the Central Community College in Columbus, NE on May 6, 2008. College President Matt Gotschall expressed his thanks and appreciation, stating that the assessment the above members provided, ‘...will definitely be used as we work towards more security protection on our campus...[we are] very pleased that the items are well explained with appropriate examples to make it very ‘user friendly’.’”
