

March's Meeting Minutes:

The March meeting of Chapter 059 was held at the Bank of the West.

Chair Jim Bogner opened the meeting at 10:43 am, leading members in the Pledge of Allegiance. There were 32 attendees who introduced themselves.

Chair Bogner announced that there would be a security conference held in the Chicago area on? Bogner also discussed a new ASIS award for community service. Bogner believes that the membership is working toward applying for the award because of the efforts of Jay Reischl, Community Service. Reischl is still taking donations of security equipment for Crystal Rhoades, assistant Executive Director with the Neighborhood Center.

Vice Chair John Cox reminded the membership that the ASIS Conference will be held in Anaheim, California September 21 – 24, 2009. Cox stated that the conference sessions are good for professional development. Cox also stated that today's webinar on Workplace Violence will be very informative.

Treasurer Brian Michalski, no report given because of the webinar.

No new business was introduced. The business meeting was suspended for lunch and the webinar.

Webinar: Workplace Violence: What do I do?

The webinar focused on:

- Best practices regarding the training of building occupants in identifying potential violent employees
- The importance of communication before, during, and after an incident.
- Sharing confidential information.
- Creating a tactical response plan for first responders and building staff.
- Recovering from an incident.

The Free Meal Drawing was held and Joe Davitt and Ken Arment were the winners

Bogner interjected and stated that Tomlison and Holaday can be used as resource if needed.

The meeting adjourned at 12:55 pm.
