

May's Meeting Minutes:

The May meeting of Chapter 059 was held at Werner Enterprises, hosted by member Tom Maille. Chapter Chair Jim Bogner started the meeting at 11:30 am, leading members in the Pledge of Allegiance. There were 39 attendees who introduced themselves.

Bogner presented information on membership and reminded/explained – National dues and Chapter affiliation. There will be a free Conference Registration – Drawing next month, the Chapter members need to be in good standing – 2009 dues paid.

Vice Chair Cox updated the membership on the 2009 Professional Development classes available to our members on-line and books available for purchase online from the ASIS Bookstore.

Cox reviewed the Webinar schedule with the membership and reminded the membership that we are not purchasing the next two webinars. However, a newly added Webinar; Security's Return on Investment will be hosted by Bank of the West on Tuesday, June 2nd.

Next meeting will be held on June 18th, 2009 at First National Bank w/tour.

July 15th (Wednesday) – Webinar: “Mastering Internet Searching and Analysis for Investigations and Security” at Physicians Mutual

August 19 (Wednesday) – Webinar: “Surviving an Active Shooter-Hostage Event in the Workplace or Academic Environment” at Bellevue University

ASIS Conference – 9/21-24/09, Anaheim, CA. September – No meeting due to ASIS Conference

October 14 (Wednesday) – LEA Luncheon

Cox announced that on June 26, 2009, the Tregaron Golf course would host the 13th Annual Crime Stoppers of Sarpy County golf tournament. Interested parties can contact Sgt. Jeremy Kinsey, LaVista Police Department at 402-331-1582 or via e-mail at jkinsey@cityoflavista.org for more information

Cox also announced to the membership that ASIS International has presented two types of Chapter Banners, which we will be voting on in the future. We will be receiving an email similar to the survey that we received in the past asking chapter members to cast their vote for a chapter banner.

Treasurer Brian Michalski presented the treasures' report and updated the chapter on finances. Michalski would like to see some of the funds spent on worthwhile community projects.

David Gates, Law Enforcement committee announced that they are planning the Law Enforcement Appreciation Lunch. Gates was pleased to announce that it will be held at Georgetown on Oct. 14th, 2009. Tom Osborne has been asked to speak and has accepted this invitation to be the keynote speaker at the event. Beginning on June 1st, you will be allowed to nominate Law Enforcement Officers, that you feel have done an outstanding job performance.

Ann Langermeier with Securitas Security USA was the winner of a free lunch.

Program: Chris Hoyme, Partner, with Jackson Lewis, specializes in Labor Law. Chris presented a very informative program about corporate liability issues affected by OSHA and labor laws. He discussed and offered suggestions on how to reduce legal liability regarding, among other areas, violence in the workplace and what responsibilities corporations have in this area to avoid liability. Hoyme provided handouts to attendees to use in discussions with corporate executive management..

The meeting adjourned at 1:00 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Wynelle Morrow, Securitas Security USA
In the absence of;
Rod Rogers
ASIS Omaha Chapter 59
Chapter Secretary